

Chamber review pancake breakfast

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce served approximately 800 people at their Canada Day pancake breakfast this year. A full report on the breakfast was given at the Chamber's July 3 meeting, which was chaired by Vice President Gloria Pundick.

Almost 30 volunteers worked hard to put on the annual event and to prepare for it, including representatives of 14 area businesses and a number of people not affiliated with the Chamber.

This was the first year that a $1 per plate charge has been levied for the breakfast, and some complaints were heard regarding the fee. Alternative methods of financing the breakfast, such as donations of food or cash by

The circus is coming to town!

The Chinese Imperial Circus will be in Elk Point on Sunday, July 14 for two shows sponsored by the A. G. Ross Arena Operating Committee. This is the first time this performing group has been allowed outside China to perform and this event is to be a fundraiser for the arena. The Big Top will be erected just north of the A. G. Ross Arena in Elk Point.

There will be two performances on the 14th, one at 2:00 and one at 4:30 p.m.

There will be a small midway with rides for the children. Everyone is invited to come out on the morning of July 14 at 9:00 a.m. to watch the elephant help pull up the Big Top.

Senior Games torch relay coming Saturday

More than twenty local torch bearers will help lead the way to the Alberta Summer Games

The torch for the 1996 Alberta Senior Games will arrive in Elk Point at 5:00 p.m. this Saturday, July 13.

The previously accredited volunteer torch bearers will meet at the Seniors' Recreation Centre, where they will be presented with t-shirts bearing the Senior Games emblem, which they will wear in the relay. These 20-plus local walkers will carry and escort the torch along a 2.2 km route within Elk Point. Starting at the Seniors' Centre, they will go south on Highway 41 to 50 Ave, and west along 50 Ave. to 50 St., then south one block, west on 49 Ave. past Fort George Manor to 53 St., north to 50 Ave., west past the Elk Point Health Centre and Heritage Lodge to 54 St., north to 52 Ave., then east past Buckingham House and Parkview Extended Care to 51 St., south one block then east on 51 Ave. to return to the Seniors' Centre. See map below.

When the relay walkers arrive back at the Seniors' Centre, an outside stage will have been set up for a program of welcome by local and other dignitaries, introduction of the Torch Relay Committee, and a formal lighting of the mini-cauldron.

The torch itself emphasizes the excellence of the 900 senior athletes who will be competing in the Seniors' Games in St. Paul from July 16 to July 19, while the relay represents the friendship and sportsmanship of the Games.

The lighting of the mini-cauldron will affirm that the spirit of the ancient Athenian games and these modern Seniors' games are united here in Alberta.

Everyone is invited to view the torch relay and to attend the outside ceremony at the Elk Point Seniors' Recreation Centre at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 13.

Returning clean, dry containers makes good sense

- You get all the product you paid for when you triple-rinse - the rinsed product goes into your sprayer tank to protect crops
- Clean, dry containers protect people, your land and the natural environment
- Clean, dry containers reduce the cost of recycling

- Steel containers are made into rebar for reinforcing concrete
- Plastic containers become farm fence posts, highway guardrail posts, or provide energy for heat and power

Thank You For Returning

Summer — the gift

By Deanna Easthope

FCSS Director

Summer is here — are we enjoying it all we can? Oh, all the beautiful flowers — the sweet songs the birds sing — the fresh smell of everything after rain — the growth of our garden vegetables — great meals outdoors — and the visits with our friends and family. Summer is the time all of this seems to happen. It truly is a gift!

Summer is a seasonal gift of Mother Nature. There are other kinds of gifts. I would like to share a little story of another kind of gift.

Bennet Cerf relates this touching story about a bus that was bumping along a backroad in the South.

In one seat a wispy old man sat holding a bunch of fresh flowers. Across the aisle was a young girl whose eyes came back again and again to the man's flowers. The time came for the old man to get off. Impulsively, he thrust the flowers into the girl's lap. "I can see you love the flowers," he explained, "and I think my wife would like for you to have them." I'll tell her I gave them to you." The girl accepted the flowers, then watched the old man get off the bus and walk through the gate of a small cemetery.

Just as Mother Nature shares the gift of summer with us, the old man in the story shared the flowers he had gathered in the summer. Thus, we can see that summer really is a sharing season. I found the following poem that relates to that feeling.

Bumblebee, all black and yellow

Dashing, handsome, fuzzy fellow

Buzzing down among the flowers

While you pass the summer hours,

Butterflies of every hue Flutter by me two by two.

Ants and beetles by the bunches

Gather together over lunches,

BUMBLEBEE

Even honeybees, your cousins, Buzz together by the dozens.

But you are always on your own, I should think that you'd be lonesome!

I've been giving this some study —

You should find a bumble buddy!]

Stoney Lake Stampede

The Stoney Lake Stampede filled a community need
Back in the old days of yore.
They deemed it a sport, recreation of sort,
First one was held in nineteen twenty-four.

From Milk River Came, Cliff Sewall the name,
Set himself in the ranching game.
Tough old cowboy of course, rode in on his horse,
And his horse herd trailed in after him.

So to this area the first rodeo came.
As young men copied Cliff's cowboy form.
Cowboy hats swept the areas by storm,
Well, this country was never the same.

But after ten years Cliff headed south,
He lost too many steers in those years,
To our frigid winter storms and then
Swore he would never go north again.

As this story I weave, along came Demchuk Steve,
And kept up the stampede tradition.
People came from miles around the old stomping ground,
Even through the lean years of the depression.

Well all those thrills, spills and chills
Will be replayed in in those hills.
We will provide great entertainment I know
As they did seventy years ago.

So come on folks and see
Stoney Lake Stampede and great scenery.
Best rodeo you've ever seen,
July thirteen and fourteen.

You can camp, you can fish,
Watch the rodeo if you wish.
The show starts with a wham
Saturday at 6:30 p.m.

Top notch Trach rodeo stock,
Sunday rodeo starts 1:30 o'clock,
Come enjoy pure country air,
And we hope to see you all there.

Nutrition Notes

Do you know how to use Canada's Food Guide to Healthy Eating?

By Julia Painchaud

Dietitian, Elk Point Health Centre

Canada's Food Guide to Healthy Eating (Revised 1992) uses a rainbow to symbolize a healthy diet. The largest are in the rainbow represents the Grain Products Group. Five to 12 servings are recommended per day. Examples are bread, cereals, pasta, rice and bagels. Most foods in this group are naturally low in fat and high in fibre. Grain products are made higher in fat when margarine, spreads and sauces are added. Vegetables and fruit make up the second largest group; potatoes are found in this group. Five to 10 servings are recommended. Fresh and frozen vegetables and fruits consumed with few add ons (salt, margarine, saucer) make healthy snacks or additions to any meal. Milk products are the third largest arc. The recommended number of servings depends on age. Fat content can vary so choose dairy products that have the lowest percentage of milk fat (MF) or butterfat (BF). For example: Regular cheese can be 32 per cent MF, try to choose cheeses that are 20 per cent MF or less. Meat and alternate make up the smallest arc. Two - 3 servings are recommended. One serving is 2-4 oz. of meat, fish, poultry, 1-2 eggs, 1/2 - 1 cup brown beans. Dried peas, beans and lentils belong to this group and are low in fat and high in fibre. The term "Other Foods" include: margarine, jam, candy, chips, pop, coffee, tea and condiments. These foods are high in fat, salt and/or sugar; small amounts can be incorporated into a healthy diet. Canada's Food Guide gives a range of servings per day for each food group to account for differences in age, body size, gender and activity level.

For a copy of Canada's Food Guide to Healthy Eating contact your local Registered Dietitian or Health Unit.

Another successful July 1 breakfast

By Sherry Pelech

Tourist Information Clerk

The Elk Point Chamber of Commerce had another successful Canada Day Pancake Breakfast on July 1st. Numbers were up slightly from other years, with approximately 800 breakfasts being served.

As usual, the event could not have happened without the able and willing efforts of a lot of volunteers. John Vandenburg contributed time, energy and sage advice. Ron, Sharon and Roger Smith organized coffee, expertly cooked the sausages and dealt professionally with all crises. We had an efficient group of pancake flippers again this year, from the expert to the novice: Michele Duczek, Del Smith, Faye Smith, (these two fetched and returned one of the grills for us also), Norm Hartley, Jill Hartley, Stella Lorenson, John Yakemchuk, Susan Yakemchuk, Rob Norman, Len Cole, Diane Cole, Don Brooker, Gaby Bayduza, and Bryce Lorenson, who seemed surprised to be handed a flipper but threw himself cheerfully into the fray anyway. By the end of a very hot morning, some of these people were as well done as the pancakes.

Phil Sheplaw, Sid Holthe and Vic Stepa dispensed coffee, juice and syrup with their usual aplomb again this year. Barbara Milholland acted as Chief Supervisor of the Loonie Bin. Lydia Pelech was the guest 'ladler of the pancake batter' and we had many busy sausage servers, pancake shuttlers, helpers and gofers, including Gloria Pundick, Florence Drobot, Anne Himschoot, Vicki Brooker and Pete Andrishak (who came early and got to help set up benches).

And Marshel Pelech served above and beyond the call of duty. He spent his day off on Saturday fetching and carrying and packing things back and forth and organizing and checking on things. (On second thought, we'll thank him ourselves... personally... later).

The Town crew brought (and returned) tables from the golf course and boards that were kindly donated by Vincent Building Supplies for benches, and helped with the cleanup. The Empress Restaurant again this year consented to mix our pancake batter and Millie Orr supplied us with pails. The Elk Point 4-H Multi Club and Faye Smith loaned us coolers for the juice, which was mixed by the Co-op.

If we have inadvertently forgotten to mention anyone, we are very sorry and hope you know that we thank you all the more.

(Editor/Chamber President's note: And one of the hardest workers of them all was Sherry herself, who did all the arranging, was there bright-eyed and eager (??) at first light on July 1, and was still there to deal with batter-encrusted jugs, disposal of left-over batter, and dispersal of borrowed items at the very end. Now that's above and beyond the call of duty. We couldn't have done it without her — and we wouldn't want to.)

THE B.C. MAPS ARE IN!

Spotlight on your favorite juvenile series

By Michele Ducek

Librarian

Summer keeps trucking along and we keep getting more books including lots and lots of new titles in our juvenile series:

Frank and Joe are volunteers at the Summer Olympics in Atlanta and discover someone is out to sabotage the entire event in Competitive Edge from the Hardy Boys.

Joe and Frank travel to the Himalayas to do a little mountain climbing and may be walking into an ambush set by a murderer in Cliff-Hanger from the Hardy Boys.

Jake and Nog are offered dream jobs running remote-controlled mining operations which are designed as a video game. The dream becomes a nightmare when they discover what they are really doing is destroying a world in Highest Score by Kem Antilles from Star Trek: Deep Space Nine.

The new player on the Seattle Thunderbirds makes friends with the team troublemaker and their friendship leads to even more trouble in Thunderbird Spirit by Sigmund Brouwer, the latest in the Lightning on Ice series.

The Saddle Club attends an international riding competition as grooms for Beatrice and her horse, Southwood in Gold Medal Rider. When an accident threatens to end Beatrice's riding career the Club wants a friend to ride ... but is she good enough?

Southwood's new owner doesn't think he has what it takes to be a champion and the Club rescues a broken, battered horse in Gold Medal Horse from the Saddle Club.

The Club helps out a Hollywood star on location at the Bar None Ranch in Cutting Horse from the Saddle Club.

A whole herd of fairies, gnomes, leprechauns and elves invade Spooksville and soon their pranks become cruel and deadly in The Little People by Christopher Pike.

Adam and his friends find a curious stone that grants wishes ... for a price in The Wishing Stone by Christopher Pike in the Spooksville series.

The scouts plan fun activities for all the springtime holidays but when Molly plays an April Fool's trick on Roger, the joke is on her in Eggs with Legs from the Pee Wee Scouts.

Jessica and Elizabeth witness a robbery but Elizabeth believes the authorities have the wrong man in Elizabeth the Spy from Sweet Valley Twins.

The twins and their friends volunteer at the Sweet Valley Zoo and find out that taking care of animals is a lot harder than it looks in Jessica's Animal Instincts, a Sweet Valley Twins Super Edition. Nancy and George go undercover at a local high school to find out who is threatening track star Samantha Matero in Running Into Trouble from Nancy Drew.

Calgary Stampede chuckwagon update

After three days of chuckwagon action at the Calgary Stampede Rangeland Derby, the Canadian Professional Chuckwagon Association's Ray Mitsuing, Loon Lake, SK, is sitting second in the standings with a total time of 3:47.88.

World Professional Chuckwagon Association driver Dallas Dorchester is leading Mitsuing by less than a quarter of a second with 3:47.66.

Stu Napper, Lashburn, SK is the only other CPCA driver in the top 10 after three nights, with a cumulative time of 3:50.92. Former CPCA driver Herman Flad of Bodo, AB is sitting tenth with 3:51.81.

Mitsuing, Dorchester, Napper and Flad have run penalty-free so far. Other drivers have not been so fortunate, with some collecting up to 14 seconds in penalties so far.

That inauspicious statistic haunts the CPCA's Brian Laboucane of St. Walburg, who ran slow but clean on Friday night, but collected 6 seconds on Saturday night and another 8 Sunday to slip to 34th place in the standings, although his running times have stayed consistent between 1:18.11 and 1:18.41.

Dewberry's Buddy Bensmiller has also had hard luck. A 2-second penalty Friday night put him into 32nd spot, and while he collected sixth day money on Saturday, that only brought him up to 18th overall. Sunday was Bensmiller's fastest run so far, but a 2-second penalty was added to his 1:15.79 to move him down to 22nd for the day and up to 17th overall.

Other CPCA drivers are also having problems. Luke Tournier's great season has not carried over into Calgary, with 7 seconds in penalties putting him into 15th place. Grant Preece is 18th, Jim Knight is 20th, Dennis McGilvery 23rd, Ray Croteau 24th, Stan Robertson 26th, Bert Croteau 28th, Leo Tournier 29th, Wayne Knight 30th and Ross Knight 36th.

Catch the wagons on CHLW Radio nightly at 8 p.m., stop at the Tourist Information Centre from Wednesday through Sunday or call the Review for daily updates.
